

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Acclaimed Hospice CD Now Available

Evergreen, Colorado, USA - August 27, 2015 - Music From The Heart releases Peace Sweet Peace, a field-tested album of original songs for hospice by award-winning songwriter Jeff Moyer. The songs address the emotional, spiritual and interpersonal needs of people approaching the end of life, their loved ones and care givers.

Audrey Boylan, Hospice Nursing Assistant (HNA), Hospice of the Western Reserve, (HWR), said, "I often play Peace Sweet Peace for patients as they decline. Again and again, they ask for me to play 'that COMFORTING MUSIC.' I see the relief and calm response as I play Jeff's wonderful CD."

Carol Ann Hensley, A hospice patient, wrote, "I want to thank Jeff so much for his beautiful CD. His music and his uplifting messages touch me."

The lyrics focus on the cycle of life, continuation of the soul, forgiveness and inner peace. Peace Sweet Peace has been helping hospice families and patients for 13 years, principally at Hospice of the Western Reserve in Cleveland, Ohio. As an HWR volunteer musician, Moyer gave 1,500 copies, one at a time, to individuals and families of all religions, races and ethnic backgrounds during his 300 volunteer concerts.

Lori Scotese, Volunteer Services Manager at HWR wrote, "Many times we will hear Jeff's beautiful, soothing songs coming from a room late at night, bringing comfort to a lonely soul."

Ahmed Mohamud, father of a hospice patient wrote, "When my son was dying, he asked for us to play Jeff Moyer's CD and it brought all of us Divine comfort."

Reverend Dana Cummings, hospice chaplain & Unity minister wrote, "Jeff Moyer's music instills a sense of peace so deep it surpasses all human understanding. His songs do so because they issue from a place of wisdom, warmth, authenticity and compassion - Jeff's heart."

Moyer's choice of language and themes are universal, making the album accessible to people of all faiths. "I wrote these songs over 25 years and have played them within various faith communities, memorial services and with choirs of children, teens and adults. These songs have been embraced and used by Buddhists, Christians, Jews, Muslims and Native Americans," Jeff said.

Peace Sweet Peace includes songs that Moyer sings with his guitar accompaniment alone, one piece Moyer plays on Native American wooden flute and several are accompanied by a trio of classical musicians playing: piano - Josie Harris, violin - Rebecca Lee Harris and cello - Jessie Smith Edwards.

Moyer recorded at Metrosync Studios in Cleveland, Ohio. The trio recorded at Steve Skinner Music in Montclair, New Jersey.

Peace Sweet Peace is available through Music from the Heart, www.jeffmoyer.com. Single CD'S are $15.95 or consider volume discounts or electronic use licensure.
